

Citing Sources in Works Cited page

"2002 PGA Tour Money Leaders." PGA Tour. 30 Dec. 2002. Web. 28 June 2011.

"2008: A record-breaking year of sports viewing." Nielsen Wire. 4 December 2008. Web. 10 October 2011.

Baker, Andrew. "Tiger Woods, the $1 billion man." The (London) Telegraph. 11 July 2008. Web. 10 October 2011.

Ballengee, Ryan. "Tiger Nearly Tripled the Buick Open's Ratings." Sports Media Watch. 4 Aug. 2009. Web. 9 October 2011.

Boren, Cindy. "2011 U.S. Open: Rory McIlroy Win with History-Making Performance." WashingtonPost.com. 11 June 2011. Web. 14 October 2011.

Brown, Clifton. "Tiger is Human, and the Golf World Wonders if That's Good or Bad." New York Times. 13 June 2004. Web. 28 June 2011.

Buteau, Michael. "No Tiger Woods Means Lower Ratings, More Bets for British." Bloomberg. 15 July 2008. Web. 14 October 2011.

---. "PGA Extends Television Deals with CBS, NBC Nine Years through 2021." Bloomberg. 1 September 2011. Web. 14 October 2011.

Gorman, Bill. "British Open ratings debacle looms as Tiger misses cut." TVByTheNumbers.com. 17 July 2009. Web. 28 June 2011.

Hiestand, Michael. "Shark Sighting Gives ABC a Boost in British Open Ratings." USA Today. 20 July 2008. Web. 14 Sept. 2011.

Hosford, Christopher. "Marketers Playing through Pain of Losing Tiger." BtoB: The Magazine for Marketing Strategists. 14 July 2008. Web. 18 Sept. 2011.

Strege, John. Tiger: A Biography of Tiger Woods. New York: Broadway, 1997. Print.

"Tiger Draws Those Who Don't Normally Watch." Associated Press. 7 Apr. 2000. Web. 9 Oct. 2011.